Overview

In the first half of 2024, China's economy demonstrated positive momentum of recovery, with gradual unleash of its potential and continued improvement of resilience and sustainability. For the insurance market, customer needs upgrade and financial regulation improves, the industry faces important opportunity in the context of China's drive for modernisation with its own characteristics.

In the face of both challenges and opportunities, especially given China's ambition to build itself into a “financial powerhouse” , we stayed focused on insurance, persisted in value growth and long-termism, deepened transformation and delivered solid business results, with secure market standings and increased comprehensive strength.
